(4) The Minister may, by order, exempt a legal person from the requirements under subsection (1).

(5) The negative resolution procedure shall apply to the order made under subsections (4).

(2) A legal person to which this section applies is a legal person that is carrying on business in Bermuda or is seeking authorisation to carry on business in Bermuda.

(3) Subsection (1) does not apply to any person who had been approved as a beneficial owner under any law in Bermuda before the coming into operation of this Act.

- (c) apply to the Court for an order directing that the shares or interest in question be subject to restrictions.

(3) In deciding whether, pursuant to a warning notice, to issue a decision notice or apply to the Court under subsection (2)(c), the legal person, after giving the person the opportunity to make representations, shall have regard to the effect of the decision notice or order on the rights of persons in respect of the relevant shares or interest, including—

(5) On an application under this section the Court may make an interim order and any such order may be made unconditionally or on such terms as the Court thinks fit.

(6) The effect of a decision notice issued by the legal person or an order made by the Court under this section is that the shares or interest in question may be subject to restrictions as follows—

(7) Where shares or interest are subject to the restriction in subsection (6)(c) or (d), an agreement to transfer any right to be issued with other shares or interest in right of those shares or interest, or to receive any payment on them (otherwise than in a liquidation), is void.

(8) The provisions of this section are subject to any directions for protection of third parties or otherwise given by the Court.

(9) The Court on the application of—

- (a) any person aggrieved by any action taken by the legal person pursuant to this section; or may set aside or affirm a notice in whole or in part and give such directions as the Court thinks fit if the Court is satisfied that the decision notice unfairly affects the protection of the rights of third parties or other persons.

(10) Section 62 of the Supreme Court Act 1905 shall be deemed to extend to the making of rules under that section to regulate the practice and procedure on an application or an appeal to the Court under this section.
